The Single Tax.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir,—Thank you for giving so much space to tax reform, and your account of the coming election in Clackamas

Mr. Venuble's Views.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir.—On my return from the country I find you have at last let the people know your position in the senatorial fight. When it was announced that Mr.
Williams would have charge of the Virginian it was no surprise that you dropped on the Jones and Glass side, Your few subscribers out here predicted it, and I am glad to say your sudden flop will not change a vote in this section. The vote in the Ninth, Fifth and Sixth will largely overcome any majorities Jones and Glass may get in other sections. A few more fool primaries and Virginia will be Republican.

Peter Piper's Position.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir.—Please allow a "word" of cheer for your editorial a few days ago, and why should not every paper respond to convictions? It is but due to the people that her "watchman" on the "walls" should sound the alarm as soon as it sees the danger to the old State. Strength and courage to your heart and arm, and let the good service to the people, of which you are so capable, come right along now, and you will deserve and should receive thenor and support from her people—the people of the Virgin State.
